The above drawings give a comprehensive idea of the improvements shortly to be erected at the northeast corner of 18th and You streets.

As was announced last week a large parcel of land at this corner has been purchased by Patrick O'Hanlon and Jeremiah O'Connor of 14th and You streets. It is the intention of the new owners to erect a number of stores and a moving picture theater on the site.

There will be five stores on You street, each with a frontage of 20 feet by a depth of 60 feet, while on 18th street there will be two stores of the same dimensions and the theater, 28 by 105 feet.

The material used in construction will be of the highest grade; workmanship the best. The entire operation represents an investment of $60,000.

These stores will be for sale or lease. Full information can be obtained from

It is probable, however, that we shall hear more of the Dead sea in the near future, for not very long ago the Turkish government granted one Soad Bey, an influential and wealthy banker of Constantinople, a concession for the exploitation of the minerals in the Dead sea basin That the whole region is exceedingly rich in various kinds of minerals has been known for years, and the finest and purest bitumen, together with quantities of peerless sulphur, are obtainable there In Byzantine times copper mines were worked near the south end of the Dead as in phosphates. It often has been stated by American connoisseurs traveling to the Dead sea that evidences of coal and oil, which in America would be unmistakable, are very apparent in this region.
